Small Groups

Where people know they belong and have an expectation for growth

At Brookside we truly value every member, believing each one should have a place to belong and a place to serve. Our small groups provide places of intimate community, practical help, and focused spiritual interaction. They are characterised by a sense of belonging and an expectation for growth as people "do life together," investing in each other and receiving investment themselves.

If you'd like to explore Brookside family life, please chat to any of the team on a Sunday morning, or contact Lynn Chetcuti on (lchetcuti@brooksidechurch.org.uk), who will be delighted to assist you in your journey.

A space to be.....

A space for women to be together, to build relationships, to pray together. Sometimes the space to lunch, sometimes space to learn together and study the bible.
Sometimes to just be, have fun together, eat cake and enjoy a cuppa! A space to bring your friends.

Wednesday 1.30 - 3pm, term time. Meeting in Earley. Email anitarprince@me.com or call 07533 537 154.

Chris and Linda Mitchell

Our fortnightly gatherings are relaxed and flexible – we laugh a lot. Over a meal in one of our homes, we discuss, share, provoke and pray for each other.

Ian and Mary Rickard

We are mostly retired people, meeting in different homes, investing in each other, and serving in various aspects of the community. Most weeks we have a Bible Study and prayers; interspersed with music, quizzes and social evenings.

EQUIPPED

FOR EVERY GOOD WORK

"Equipped is a collection of monthly bible study groups, designed to give people the opportunity to explore the bible, with a view to understand who we are in Christ and how He wants to out work His kingdom through us."

“We follow a structured study course that will take us through the entire Bible. Month by month we study a section of the scriptures, with the use of study aids. We have monthly group meetings where we discuss and ask questions about what we have learnt.”

Meeting monthly in Lower Earley, these groups meet on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings and are led by Rob Cooke, Stuart Mitchel and Ben Morrison. For further information contact Rob Cooke. Email robcooke555@gmail.com or call 07922 824125
